Creative Writing - Speeches

What do I do?

Read the task and write a speech. You will need to consider your audience (who you're addressing in your speech) and the purpose of your speech.

Top Tips!

- Take time to plan your work (5 mins)
- Read the question. If the question asks you to include certain points, make a note of them in your plan and remember to include them.
- Remember the key features of a speech and try to include as many features as you can.

Features

Features of a speech - don't be scared!

F

Facts and statistics

Involve facts and numbers to support your views and ideas (Just make them up!)
40% of 11 year olds own a mobile phone

E

Emotion and exaggeration

Address your audience and include thoughts and feelings in your speech - even if it is going a little over the top! Imagine being a lost child without any means of communication, disconnected from the entire world!

a

Alliteration

Catchy alliterative phrases will make your speech more memorable.
Technical teens, picky parents and tiresome teachers

R

Rhetorical questions, rule of 3 and repetition

Ask your audience questions to make them think and to put themselves into a situation that you are describing. Repetition will make your speech more memorable, especially if they are within a group of three. How would you feel without your mobile phone? Lost. Isolated. Disconnected. Children need communication, children need interaction and children need trust.

Structure

Add another point or paragraph, if you have time but make sure you talk about your overall message at the end!

Paragraph 1

Who are you and why are you talking today?

Paragraph 2

First point or topic

Paragraph 3

Second point or topic

Paragraph 4

What is your third and final point and what is the overall message you want your listeners to hear?
